LADDCAP URGES STOCKHOLDERS TO VOICE THEIR OPINION AND RETURN THE BLUE CONSENT CARD TODAY

Laddcap Issues Open Letter to Fellow Delcath Stockholders Asking for Their Support and Announcing a September 6th Conference Call

New York, August 24 - Laddcap Value Partners LP today announced that it issued the following letter to its fellow Delcath Systems Inc.'s (Nasdaq: DCTH) stockholders. Laddcap is asking its fellow Delcath stockholders for their written consent to remove and replace Delcath's current Board of Directors with its slate of experienced nominees who will work relentlessly to advance Delcath's technology and increase stockholder value in both the near and long-term. Laddcap is asking Delcath stockholders to return their BLUE Consent Card today.

Dear Fellow Delcath Stockholders:

Laddcap Value Partners is pleased to see the release of Delcath's Definitive Consent Revocation Statement. Now both parties have definitive documents on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. As we have mentioned in the past, Laddcap is simply seeking an open stockholder voting process. In our opinion, the recent negative campaigning and soliciting efforts by Delcath, its management and Board only serve to divert attention away from the true issues in this consent solicitation. Moreover, we believe that Delcath's multiple lawsuits divert attention from the real choices facing Delcath's stockholders; they also appear to be extremely costly for its stockholders.

The issue being decided by Delcath' stockholders is not, as Delcath has characterized in its latest letter, a "hostile takeover attempt" that requires "defending." We question how a stockholder consent solicitation to change Delcath's Board, which will require approval by a majority vote of the total outstanding shares, can be properly defined as "hostile?" Hostile to whom?

Laddcap is attempting, with its own funds, to participate in an open stockholder vote to decide the future governance of Delcath. In our opinion, the present board of Delcath is attempting, using stockholders' money, to thwart stockholder democracy. We view these tactics to, "protect stockholders," as self-serving and an inappropriate use of corporate funds (especially for a company of Delcath's size). We are confident that the will of the stockholders will not be stymied by Delcath's legal maneuverings.

PLEASE SUBMIT YOUR BLUE CONSENT CARD TODAY, YOUR VOTE COUNTS TODAY.

We encourage all Delcath stockholders to engage themselves in this most democratic of processes. Nothing less than the future governance of Delcath is at stake. Please take the time to seriously and independently evaluate the issues at hand. Compare the experiences and qualifications of our nominees against the experiences and qualifications of the current Board. Voting is the only way to voice your opinion, so we urge you to take the time and vote.

OPEN CONFERENCE CALL

As we have previously stated, we believe it is important to maintain an open and on-going dialogue with stockholders. Therefore, representatives of Laddcap's proposed slate of directors will be available on a conference call on September 6th at 4:30 p.m. (E.T.). Dial 1-888-550-5602 and enter code 0981 2532 for access to the call.
