LADDCAP IS PREPARED TO USE INDEPENDENT PROXY ADVISORY FIRMS
RECOMMENDATION AS A FRAMEWORK FOR A SETTLEMENT THAT WILL BENEFIT ALL DELCATH STOCKHOLDERS

New York, September 18, 2006 - Laddcap Value Partners LP, Delcath Systems, Inc.'s (Nasdaq: DCTH) largest stockholder, is currently undertaking a written consent solicitation that, if successful, will remove all existing directors of Delcath and replace them with a new slate of directors.

Laddcap asks its fellow Delcath stockholders to continue to support effective change at Delcath by submitting their BLUE Consent Cards.

Despite Laddcap's ability to remove and replace Delcath's existing directors upon a successful consent solicitation, Laddcap is currently willing to agree to a settlement with Delcath that uses the Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS) and Glass Lewis & Co. reports as a framework for a settlement. ISS and Glass Lewis are leading independent global proxy advisory and voting services firms.

Both the ISS and Glass Lewis reports recommend that current Delcath directors Mark Corigliano and Victor Nevins resign from Delcath's Board and be replaced by two directors from the Laddcap slate.

"Laddcap is committed to increasing stockholder value for all Delcath stockholders. A compromise settlement, which would bring a fresh perspective onto Delcath's Board, will be a big step in achieving that result. Moreover, the settlement will end the expenditures on litigation; funds that can be better used by Delcath for recruiting patients for its clinical trials and for testing new applications for its device. We look forward to working with Delcath, Mr. Koly, and their counsel, to negotiate a settlement on an expedited and good faith basis," stated Robert B. Ladd, Board nominee.

Notwithstanding Laddcap's willingness to negotiate a settlement with Delcath, Delcath has not agreed to any such settlement. Therefore, it is imperative that you continue to send in your BLUE Consent Cards.

PLEASE SIGN, DATE AND RETURN YOUR BLUE CONSENT CARD
